Dear Dr.Rana,

The reason I give the account updates is not only because I want to keep you updated even though you blindly accept my statements(maybe because you have a habit of taqleed) but also so you know how much money is still in the reserves for the office whether it is from you or me.Ok this is how it stands:

After sending that $1500, the office fund comes down to $2500 that you owe.With that 1500 I have paid the flat rent upto 1 June.Now I am bringing the remaining $2500 from pak as well as $1000 I owed the office from before as well as $500 that I spent for myself from the office funds beacuse I was short on cash.

Since I am bringing the $2500 for the office so you will then owe me $18500 instead of $16000 previously but I still need you to send only the same $16000 to dubai and hold on to the other $2500 for later.

Now that that is explained the situation is this that i will have $4000 of the office fund with me to spent as you direct when i get back.

Got it.

Now please call Dr.Amin and baljeet and rozario if you havent yet done so.Also there is another person who has an established business since 1986 and wants details about L-1 visa.The business however is in his wife's name so please call him too.His name is D.K. Jindal.His cell number is 92 1310 4522 and email is jian@vsnl.net. He also has accountants in India and Florida.Also when you come to India get some cards printed for me with my name and the chicago or nyc address.People ask me for it.

Ok man take care.
Dave
