BACKGROUND MATERIAL REGARDING PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION- 2012

The term of office of the present President of India is upto 24th July 2012. Thus an election is due to be held for electing a new President before the 24th July 2012. Under the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 4 of the Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Act, 1952, the notification under sub-section (1) of section 4 of the said Act calling the election can be issued by the Election Commission on or after the sixtieth day before the expiry of the term of office of outgoing President. That is, the notification containing the programme of election to the office of the President, can be issued by the Election Commission on any day after 25th May, 2012.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS: -

2. The President of India is elected by the Members of an Electoral College consisting of (a) the elected members of both Houses of Parliament and (b) the elected members of the Legislative Assemblies of the States [including National Capital Territory of Delhi and the Union Territory of Puducherry vide the Constitution (Seventieth Amendment) Act, 1992] (Article 54). The members nominated of either House of Parliament or the Legislative Assemblies of State are not eligible to be included in the Electoral College.

3. Vide Section 2 of the Constitution (Seventieth Amendment) Act, 1992, an amendment was made to the EXPLANATION below article 54 of the Constitution. The amended Explanation is as under:-

“Explanation – In this Article and in Article 55 “State” includes the National Capital Territory of Delhi and the Union Territory of Puducherry”.

4. That amendment came into force w.e.f. 1st June 1995, by the notification G.S.R. No. 375(E) dated 2nd May 1995 issued by Ministry of Law, Justice & Company Affairs, Government of India, New Delhi.

5. The Electoral College for the ensuing Presidential Election shall now consist of (a) the elected members of both Houses of Parliament and (b) the elected members of the Legislative Assemblies of the States including NCT of Delhi and Union Territory of Puducherry.

6. The Constitution also stipulates that there shall be uniformity, as far as practicable, in the scale of representation of the different States at the election (Article 55). For securing such uniformity among the States inter-se as well as parity between the States as a whole and the Union, a formula based on the population of each State is given in the Constitution for determination of the value of vote which each elected Member of Parliament and of the Legislative Assembly of each State is entitled to cast.

7. The Constitution (Eighty-fourth) Amendment Act, 2001 provides that until the relevant population figures for the first census to be taken after the year 2026 have been published, the population of the States for the purposes of calculation of value of votes for the Presidential Election shall mean the population as ascertained at the 1971-census.

ILLUSTRATION

Total population of Andhra Pradesh (1971 census)	:	43,502,708
Total No of elective seats in the State Assembly	:	294
No. of votes for each member	:	43,502,708

		1000 x 294
		= 147.96 or 148

8. Total Value of votes of all members of each State Assembly is worked out by multiplying the number of elective seats in the Assembly by the number of votes for each member, e.g., $294 \times 148 = 43,512$ for Andhra Pradesh. The total value of votes of all the States added together is divided by the total number of elected members of Parliament (Lok Sabha 543 + Rajya Sabha 233) to get the value of votes per each Member of Parliament.

9. A statement showing the value of votes of each Member of the Legislative Assemblies of 28 States, NCT of Delhi and the Union Territory of Puducherry, total value of votes of each of the said States, the value of votes of each Member of Parliament, the total value of votes of the MPs and the grand total of value of all the members in the List of Electoral College for the Presidential Election, 2012 may be seen at APPENDIX-I.

10. The election shall be held in accordance with the system of Proportional Representation by means of the single transferable vote and the voting at such election shall be by secret ballot.

SYSTEM OF PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION BY MEANS OF SINGLE TRANSFERABLE VOTE - DETAILED PROCEDURE

The manner of voting at Presidential Election is contained in Rule 17 of the Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Rules, 1974.

10.1 The ballot paper does not contain any election symbol. There will be two columns in the ballot paper. Column 1 of the ballot paper contains the heading “Name of Candidate” and column 2 contains the heading “Mark order of preference”.

10.2 Each Elector shall have as many preferences as there are candidates, but no ballot paper shall be considered invalid solely on the ground that all such preferences are not marked.

10.3 An elector in giving his vote shall place the figure 1 in the space opposite the name of the candidate whom he chooses for his first preference and may, in addition, mark as many subsequent preferences as he wishes by placing on his ballot paper the figures 2,3,4 and so on in the spaces opposite the names of other candidates, in order of preference. The figures may be marked in the international form of Indian numerals or in the Roman form or in the form used in any Indian language BUT SHALL NOT BE INDICATED IN WORDS.

VALUE OF VOTES

10.4 The value of vote of each elector is pre-determined as may be seen from the Statement at APPENDIX-I. For example, the value of vote of each Member of Parliament is 708. The value of vote of each Member of the Legislative Assembly of Uttar Pradesh is 208 and that of Sikkim is 7. Thus the value of votes for the Members of each Legislative Assembly varies.

10.5 While counting the votes, the Returning Officer counts the votes State wise in so far as the votes are cast by the members of each Legislative Assembly, and in one lot that of Members of Parliament.

10.6 The Returning Officer scrutinizes the ballot papers first and if found valid, puts the valid ballot paper in the Tray meant for the candidate to whom the first preference was marked. After distributing the ballot papers of one State, the R.O. totals the valid ballot

Parliament, the R.O. totals up the value of valid votes secured by each candidates.

QUOTA FOR ELECTION

10.7 After calculating the total value of votes polled by each candidate, the Returning Officer totals up the value of all valid votes polled. The quota for declaring a candidate as elected is determined by dividing the of valid votes by 2 and adding one to the quotient, ignoring the remainder, if any. For example, assuming the total value of valid votes polled by all candidates is 1,00,001. The quota required for getting elected is: -

$$\begin{array}{r} 1,00,001 + 1 = 50,000.50 + 1 \text{ (Ignore.50)} \\ \hline 2 \\ \text{Quota} = 50,000+1 = 50,001. \end{array}$$

10.8 After ascertaining the quota, the Returning Officer has to see whether any candidate secured the quota for being declared as elected on the basis of the total value of first preference votes polled by him/her.

10.9 If no candidate gets the quota on the basis of first preference votes, then the Returning Officer proceeds further to second round of counting during which the candidate having lowest value of votes of first preference is excluded and his votes are distributed among the remaining candidates according to the second preference marked on these ballot papers. The other continuing candidates receive the votes of excluded candidate at the same value at which he/she received them in the first round of counting.

10.10 The Returning Officer will go on excluding the candidates with lowest number of votes in subsequent rounds of counting till either one of the continuing candidates gets the required quota or till only one candidate remains in the field as the continuing candidate and shall declare him/her as elected.

ELIGIBILITY FOR ELECTION

11. No person shall be eligible for election as President unless he -
 - (1) is a citizen of India;
 - (2) has completed the age of 35 years; and
 - (3) is qualified for election as a member of the House of the People (Article 58).

(3) is qualified for election as a member of the House of the People (Article 58).

12. A person shall not be eligible for election as President if he holds any office of profit under the Government of India or the Government of any State or under any Local or other Authority subject to the control of any of the State Governments.

13. However, a person shall not be deemed to hold any office of profit by reason only that he is the President or Vice-President of the Union or the Governor of any State or is a Minister either for the Union or for any State.

14. Detailed provisions regarding the election are contained in the Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Act, 1952 (No.31 of 1952) and the rules made thereunder, viz., "The Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Rules, 1974".

PREVIOUS ELECTIONS

15. The Presidential election to be held in 2012, will be the fourteenth of such elections to the office of the President. The earlier elections to this office were held in 1952, 1957, 1962, 1967, 1969, 1974, 1977, 1982, 1987, 1992, 1997, 2002 and 2007. Details of each of the earlier elections are given in brief in the APPENDIX-III.

16. The experience of the five elections to the office of President held earlier in 1952, 1957, 1962, 1967 and 1969 revealed that some persons offered themselves as candidates for the office of the President without even a remote chance of getting elected. Another matter of concern was the manner in which some persons approached Courts of Law challenging the election to the office of the President.

17. In order to remedy these shortcomings, the Commission made a number of recommendations, as a result of which, the Parliament enacted "The Presidential and Vice-Presidential (Amendment) Act, 1974 (5 of 1974)". An Ordinance was also promulgated on 5th June, 1997 to further amend the Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Act, 1952, which was later converted into an Act. These Acts introduced various important provisions relating to the mode and manner of elections to the offices of the President and Vice-President. The Central Government issued a new set of "The Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Rules, 1974" replacing the Rules of 1952 in consultation with the Election Commission. The Central Government further amended these rules vide Ministry of Law and Justice Notification No. F.13(1)/97-Leg.II dated 06.06.1997. Some of the important amendments in the law are: -

17.1 A prospective Presidential candidate should get his nomination paper subscribed by at least fifty electors as proposers and at least fifty electors as seconders. In the case of prospective Vice-Presidential candidate, the nomination paper should be subscribed by at least twenty electors as proposers and at least twenty electors as seconders. No elector shall subscribe whether as proposers or as seconder, more than one nomination paper at the same election and if he does so, his signature shall be inoperative on any paper other than the one first delivered.

17.2 Not more than four nomination papers can be filed by or on behalf of a candidate or received by the Returning Officer.

17.3 A prospective candidate should deposit a sum of Rupees fifteen thousand as security deposit. This amount is liable to be forfeited if at the election where the poll has been taken the candidate is not elected and the number of valid votes polled by such candidate does not exceed one-sixth of the votes necessary to secure the return of a candidate at such election.

17.4 An election petition calling in question an election to the office of the President may be presented – within 30 days from the date of publication of the declaration of the result of election- to the Supreme Court by any candidate at such election or any twenty or more electors joined together as petitioners; and in the case of the election to the office of the Vice-President, by any candidate at such election or by ten or more electors joined together as petitioners.

ELECTORAL COLLEGE

18. Under rule 40 of the Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Rules, 1974, the Election Commission is required to maintain a list of members of the electoral college referred to in Article 54 with their addresses corrected up to date.

19. The list will contain the names of elected members of the Rajya Sabha, Lok Sabha and the elected members of State Legislative Assemblies in that order. The names will be numbered in a continuous series. The names will be arranged in alphabetical order of the State/Union Territory. Members in respect of whom the appropriate Court i.e. High Court or Supreme Court has given a limited stay of operation of the order of setting aside of his election by the Court, are not entitled to vote at the election, though their names would have been included in the electoral college. The list of Electoral College for the Presidential Election will be made available for sale to public shortly.

NOMINATION AND SECURITY DEPOSIT

20. For a valid nomination, the following qualifications and requirements are to be satisfied: -

- 20.1 (a) The candidate should be a citizen of India;
- (b) He should have completed the age of 35 years; and
- (c) He should be qualified for election as a member of Lok Sabha.

The candidate shall not hold any office of profit under the Government of India or the Govt. of any State or under any local or other authority subject to the control of any of the said Governments.

20.2 A nomination paper of a candidate for the election in the prescribed form (Form 2 appended to 1974 rules) has to be subscribed by at least fifty electors as proposers and at least fifty electors as seconders. The nomination paper must be presented in person to the Returning Officer, either by the candidate himself or by any of his proposers or seconders.

20.3 The security deposit for the election is Rs.15,000/- which will be required to be made along with the nomination paper. This amount can either be deposited in cash with Returning Officer at the time of presentation of the nomination paper or receipt showing that such amount has been deposited by the candidate or on his behalf in the Reserve Bank of India or in a Government Treasury can be furnished along with the nomination paper.

20.4 Each nomination paper shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the entry relating to the candidate in the electoral roll for the Parliamentary constituency where he is registered as an elector.

20.5 No elector shall subscribe, whether as proposer or as seconder, more than one nomination paper at the same election and if he does so, his signature shall be inoperative on any paper other than the one first delivered to the Returning Officer.

20.6 The Returning Officer shall not accept any nomination paper, which is presented on any day, appointed for that purpose, before 11.00a.m. and after 3.00p.m.

TOTAL ELECTORS

21. The total number of members in the Electoral College for the Presidential election in 2012 is 4896, as detailed below:

	HOUSE	SEATS
(a)	Rajya Sabha	233
(b)	Lok Sabha	543
(c)	State Assemblies	4120

	Total	4896

RETURNING OFFICER/ASSISTANT RETURNING OFFICERS

22. By convention, the Secretary General, Lok Sabha and the Secretary General, Rajya Sabha are appointed as the Returning Officers by rotation. For the 2007 Presidential Election, the Secretary General, Lok Sabha was appointed as Returning Officer. Therefore, for the 2012 Presidential Election, the Secretary General, Rajya Sabha has been appointed as the Returning Officer. Two other senior officers of Rajya Sabha Secretariat and the Secretaries and one more senior officer of Legislative Assemblies of all States including NCT of Delhi and Union Territory of Puducherry have also been appointed as the Assistant Returning Officers.

23. The Commission is taking steps to fill vacancies of both Houses and State Legislative Assemblies, if any, as far as practicable. The list of electoral college for the Presidential election in 2012 is complete.

24. During 2007, the following was the programme for the Presidential Election: -

a)	Issue of Notification	16-06-2007 (Saturday)
b)	Last date for making nominations	30-06-2007 (Saturday)
c)	Scrutiny of nominations	02-07-2007 (Monday)
d)	Last date for the withdrawal of candidatures	04-07-2007(Wednesday)
e)	Date of Poll	19-07-2007 (Thursday)
f)	Counting of Votes	21-07-2007 (Saturday)

25. The programme for the 2012 Presidential Election will be notified in due course. A statement at Appendix-II shows the programme for the previous 13 Presidential elections.

PLACES OF POLL

26. A Room in the Parliament House in New Delhi and a room in all State Legislative Assembly Secretariats are generally fixed as places of poll. The Members of Parliament normally vote in New Delhi and the members of the State Legislative Assemblies, including the members of the Legislative Assemblies of NCT of Delhi and Union Territory of Puducherry, normally vote at the place fixed in each State Capital / UT Capital. However, facilities are provided by the Commission for any Member of Parliament to vote in the capital/UT Capital of his State and similarly if any Member of any State Legislative Assembly unavoidably stays in Delhi on the date of poll, he is given the facility to vote at the polling booth set up in the Parliament House. However, due intimation of such intention to vote at a place other than the place where a member is designated to vote must be received in the Commission well in advance to make necessary arrangements.

DISPUTE OVER ELECTION

27. (i) An election petition calling in question an election to the office of the President may be presented by any candidate at such election or by any twenty or more electors joined together as petitioners.
- (ii) The authority having jurisdiction to try an election petition is the Supreme Court of India.
- (iii) An election petition shall be presented within 30 days from the date of publication of the declaration containing the name of the returned candidate.

RETURN OR FORFEITURE OF CANDIDATE'S DEPOSIT

28. The deposit shall be forfeited if the candidate is not elected and the number of valid votes polled by him does not exceed one-sixth of the number of votes necessary to secure return of a candidate at such election. In other cases, the deposit will be returned to the candidate.

Sanjeeva Reddy (with 4,05,427 votes) remained in the field. Shri V.V. Giri who secured the quota was declared elected by the Returning Officer on 20.08.1969 and the newly elected President assumed office on 24-08-1969.

SPECIAL FEATURES OF THE ELECTION

1. An innovation was introduced for the first time to ensure strict secrecy of voting. The serial numbers on the back of the ballot papers were covered with coloured slips of paper pasted at the four corners.

2. The ballot papers were shuffled three or four times during the polling so that the agents of the candidates find it difficult to note down the serial numbers to identify the votes cast by members during counting.

3. For the first time in suitable cases, some MLAs were allowed to cast their votes at Parliament House in New Delhi instead of their State Capitals.

4. There was a gap of 4 days between the date of the poll and the date of counting. For this, there was some amount of unjustified criticism of the Commission. The reasons why such a gap was given were several. First, there were numerous postal ballot papers for electors who were under preventive detention. They were detained at outlying stations and the Commission wanted to ensure that they had sufficient time to send their votes to reach the Returning Officer before counting. The polled ballot boxes had to come from distant States of North East like Nagaland and Assam and weather conditions in August in these places were extremely inclement and unfavorable. The Commission was in constant touch with the meteorological authorities. The Air Flights were badly delayed or cancelled. Ultimately the ballot boxes had to be carried from Guwahati by the army courier plane under special escorts. All previous Presidential Elections in 1952, 1957, 1962 and 1967 were held in first half of May when the weather was in good condition and in 1969, for the first time, the election was to be held in August.

5. It was represented that the agents of the candidates should be allowed to travel in the same Plane from various State Capitals in which ballot boxes were being carried to Delhi. Commission agreed to this request.

6. The Commission made the Civil Aviation authorities to permit the escort of the polled ballot boxes (the respectively Assistant Returning Officers) to keep the sealed ballot boxes by his side closely near his seat in the Plane.

7. Another criticism was that the votes should have been counted at the State Capitals themselves instead of being brought to Delhi. These critics were not aware that in the proportional representation by single transferable system of voting, counting can not be done in piecemeal at different places to arrive at decisive result.

SIXTH PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION, 1974

The term of Shri V.V. Giri as the President of India expired on 23-08-1974. An election was held before that date.

CHANGES IN THE LAW

The experience of the past five elections to the office of the President held in 1952, 1957, 1962, 1967 and 1969 had revealed that persons often offered themselves as candidates for the highest office of President without even a remote chance of getting elected. Another matter of concern was the light-hearted manner in which persons resorted to a court of law for challenging the election to the office of the President. In order to remedy these shortcomings, the Government, on the recommendations of the Commission, got an Act passed by Parliament on 23-03-1974 amending the Presidential and Vice-Presidential Act, 1952. The main features of the amendment are:

1. The nomination paper of a Presidential candidate shall be subscribed by at least 10 electors as proposers and 10 electors as seconders.
2. The security deposit is made Rs.2,500/-.
3. Election petition challenging an election can be presented only before the Supreme Court by any contesting candidate or by minimum 20 electors joined together as petitioners.
4. The timetable for the elections to the office of the President and Vice-President was made statutory. It was provided that the last date for making nominations shall be the 14th day after the publication of the notification calling the election, the scrutiny will be on the day following such last date for filing nominations, the last date for withdrawal will be the second day following the date of scrutiny and the date of poll, if necessary, shall be not earlier than the fifteenth day after the last date for withdrawal.

In view of the extensive amendments, the Central Government in consultation with the Election Commission issued a new set of Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Rules, 1974, replacing the Rules of 1952.

Shri R. Venkataraman was declared elected by the Returning Officer on 16-07-1987. He assumed office on 25-07-1987.

SOME IMPORTANT FEATURES OF THIS ELECTION

ELIGIBILITY TO VOTE BY DISQUALIFIED MEMBERS

The Speaker, on the ground of defection, disqualified 22 members of the Punjab Legislative Assembly. During the trial of their Special Leave Petition, the Supreme Court in its interim Order dated 07-05-1987 had held that if any Presidential Election was to be held before the hearing of the matter, the disqualified members would be entitled to participate in the poll and cast their votes as if they had not been disqualified. On a clarification sought by the Commission, the Supreme Court, by an Order dated 22-06-1987, held that participation includes proposing and seconding of nominations of candidates. The votes cast by these members might be separately marked and after counting kept separately until final disposal of the case. The Court also indicated that such further directions as might be needed might be taken at the time of hearing of the matter.

Pursuant to the above directions, the names of the 22 Members of Legislative Assembly concerned were included in the list of members of the Electoral College.

In order to give effect to the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the Commission laid down the following procedure for observance by the Assistant Returning Officer i.e. Secretary to the Punjab Legislative Assembly:-

i) Every ballot paper, issued to the above mentioned 22 Members or the postal ballot paper, if issued to any of them on the ground of his being under preventive detention, and the counterfoil thereof shall be prominently marked on their back with a rubber stamp to be supplied by the Election Commission containing the words "Permitted to vote under direction of the Supreme Court."

ii) For the purpose of issue of ballot papers to the above mentioned 22 Members, a separate packet consisting of the last 25 ballot papers supplied for use of electors at Chandigarh shall be set apart.

iii) An additional polling officer shall be posted for issue of ballot papers to the 22 members concerned. He shall be supplied with the list of members of the Punjab Legislative Assembly.

iv) The additional polling officer shall be seated near the other polling officers and polling agents so that it does not become necessary for candidates to appoint additional polling agents.

v) The procedure for issue and marking of ballot papers by the said 22 members and their insertion into the ballot box shall be the same as is applicable for the other members.

vi) After the close of poll, the marked copy of the list of electors supplied to the additional polling officer mentioned above, the counterfoils of ballot papers issued to the members referred to above, and the unused ballot papers with said additional polling officer shall be placed in separate packets by the Assistant Returning Officer and shall be sealed and secured in the manner prescribed under rule 21 (1) of the Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Rules, 1974 and forwarded to the Returning Officer alongwith other election records pertaining to that polling station.

Pending the decision of the Supreme Court on the above mentioned application of the Election Commission seeking clarification whether the votes so cast by the members of the Punjab Legislative Assembly could be taken into account by the Returning Officer for the purpose of determination and declaration of the results of the election, the Commission laid down the following procedure for counting of votes in case the Court issued a direction that the votes cast by the 22 disqualified members should be counted –

i) When the ballot box containing the ballot papers cast by members of Punjab Legislative Assembly is taken up, the number of votes found in the ballot box be tallied with the number of votes cast.

ii) Thereafter, the folded ballot papers shall be unfolded in such a manner as preferences marked thereon are not seen. For this purpose, the face of the unfolded ballot papers shall be kept downwards.

iii) Thereafter, detailed scrutiny of the unfolded ballot papers shall be made. Scrutiny shall consist of two stages. In the first stage, genuineness of the ballot papers shall be ascertained with reference to the matter on their back but marking thereon shall not be seen or scrutinized. In the second stage, all the ballot papers shall be kept together in the form of bundles and reversed upside down and then taken up for detailed scrutiny. It shall be ensured that reverse side is not shown to or seen by any body. Thereafter the counting of votes shall proceed in the prescribed manner.

However, if the Supreme Court ordered that these ballot papers of 22 Members shall not be counted, these papers shall be taken out by seeing the rubber stamp marks on their back. These shall, however, neither be unfolded nor the preferences marked thereon shall be seen or scrutinized.

The Supreme Court, however, ordered on 14th July 1987 that the votes cast by the members shall be counted but shall be kept separately after counting. A copy of the order of the Supreme Court was sent to the Returning Officer on 15th July, 1987.

ELECTIONS DECLARED VOID BY HIGH COURT, BUT STAY ORDERS ISSUED BY THE SUPREME COURT

Five members of electoral college – two of Andhra Pradesh Legislative Assembly and one each of Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh and Punjab Legislative Assembly, were not entitled to cast their votes as their elections had been declared void by respective High Courts but orders of the High Courts were stayed by Supreme Court.

SPECIAL FEATURES

Broad Cast/Telecast Facilities

Shri Mithelsh Kumar Sinha, one of the contesting candidates requested the Commission for facility to put forth his views over AIR/Doordarshan.

Under a scheme evolved by the Ministry of I & B, in consultation with the Commission in 1977, such broadcasting/telecasting facilities are afforded to recognized political parties during general elections to Lok Sabha and State Assemblies. However, these facilities are not extended to other elections. Another candidate Shri V.R. Krishna Iyer was reported to have requested the Minister of State in M/o Information & Broadcasting (Shri Ajit Kumar Panja) that the three contesting candidates should be given opportunity to express their views over AIR/Doordarshan and it was reported that the Govt. did not accept the request and accordingly no candidate was allowed facility of broadcasting/telecasting their views.
