Shri Narendra Modi

Hon'ble Prime Minister

South Block

New Delhi, India 110011

Dear Sir:

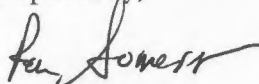

I write this congratulatory note with great excitement and anticipation. I can only imagine your sense of accomplishment. The hard work of three terms as Chief Minister and the hundreds of rallies carried out across India will now hopefully allow you some brief respite to reflect on the historic mandate delivered to you by the Indian electorate. Clearly, the people have voted for change – change from scandal, change from status quo, change for the hope of progress and opportunity. You personify this hope.

Sir, I have formed India First Group to help guide American investors to India. I have been keeping Resident Commissioner Bharat Lal closely advised of my career move. Please know I am prepared to dedicate all my efforts to helping build to greatness the Indo-U.S. commercial relationship, realizing its full potential.

Feel free to contact me at any time, at any hour, and I shall be there to support the country and the U.S.-India relationship with all my heart.

With warmest regards and heartiest congratulations on your triumphant success.

Respectfully,

Ron Somers
